

This bill is too broad to be effective. It is not against any current law to duplicate copyright material for personal. In fact it is suggested by several companies that a copy be used for day to day playback to preserve the quality of your original. Make laws that penalize to the maximum those who infringe on copyright laws for profit and leave the vast majority of your fellow citizens alone.